

Name: _____

Observer Sheet

What are three key pieces of information from the background that help set-up our scene?

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____

Your Role Today (Circle One): Therapist Artist Advisor

Task: You will not be directly involved in the role-playing today but you have a crucial observer task. Choose an important moment that happens in the role-play. Describe the action that the character took and then analyze it based on your observer role.

Character: _____

Describe Character's Action	Therapist: Character's thoughts & feelings Artist: Draw image Advisor: Give advice

After the Role Play... Choose three of the sentence stems to finish

One important moment was when... _____

One thing I wonder is why... _____

I agree with the choice to... _____

I disagree with the choice to... _____

Name: _____

Artist's Role Playing Sheet

What are three key pieces of information from the background that help set-up our scene?

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____

Your Role Today: Artist

Task: You will not be directly involved in the role-playing today but you have a crucial task. Artists often help our understanding of an event by creating a visual description of what happened. Choose an important event that happens in the role-play and draw as detailed a description of the events as you can. You may add in visual details as you imagine how it actually looked in the proper setting.

After the Role Play... Choose three of the sentence stems to finish

One important moment was when... _____

One thing I wonder is why... _____

I agree with the choice to... _____

I disagree with the choice to... _____

Name: _____

Therapist's Role Playing Sheet

What are three key pieces of information from the background that help set-up our scene?

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____

Your Role Today: Therapist

Task: You will not be directly involved in the role-playing today but you have a crucial task. Therapists often help our understanding of an event by helping the people involved understand what they were thinking. You will be assigned a character. Choose an important moment that happens in the role-play. Describe the action that your character took and what you imagine the character was thinking and feeling at that time.

Character: _____

Character's Action	Character's Thoughts & Feelings

After the Role Play... Choose three of the sentence stems to finish

One important moment was when... _____

One thing I wonder is why... _____

I agree with the choice to... _____

I disagree with the choice to... _____

Name: _____

Life Coach's Role Playing Sheet

What are three key pieces of information from the background that help set-up our scene?

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____

Your Role Today: Life Coach

Task: Life coaches give suggestions and strategies for helping us get out of difficult problems. You will be assigned a character. Choose an important moment that happens in the role-play. Explain what happened at that moment and what your advice is to that character.

What Was Happening	Advice

After the Role Play... Choose three of the sentence stems to finish

One important moment was when... _____

One thing I wonder is why... _____

I agree with the choice to... _____

I disagree with the choice to... _____

